IL PAGOPA

The benefits of trees for livable and sustainable communities.

Trees promote a strong economy and can provide numerous resources to the people that need them. Whilecities are getting hotter, trees can reduce urban temperatures. They provide habitat and food for animals.

Finally, trees are valuable green infrastructure to manage stormwater. Money spent on urban forestry has ahigh return on investment. As we navigate this human-dominated era, we need skilled people who understand the nuances of the built environment and trees as we strategically plan the cities of the future.

The overwhelming evidence from the scientific literature suggests that investing in trees is an investment in meeting the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, and ultimately an investment for a better world.
